Criminal Justice Advocacy & Support Directory

A Guide to Services for Pennsylvania Inmates, Victims of Crime
& Their Families

Brought to you through the Cooperative Efforts of
The Pennsylvania
Institutional Law Project
CentrePeace, Inc.

Foreword

This directory is made available to you free of charge through the cooperative efforts of CentrePeace, Inc., and the Pennsylvania Institutional Law Project. These organizations are dedicated to working towards a restorative justice system that fosters human growth and development and provides support services for Pennsylvania inmates, victims and their families.

Funding for this project was provided by the Pennsylvania Institutional Law Project. Ongoing support and assistance was provided by the Pennsylvania Legal Aid Network. Additional funding was provided by Pennsylvania's Department of Community and Economic Development and their Community Revitalization Assistance Program. Special thanks to State Representative H. William DeWeese for his support.

The compilation, typing and editing of this directory was provided by CentrePeace, Inc. CentrePeace has been a restorative justice advocate since 1994. This directory is just one of the many specialized services and programs coordinated by CentrePeace.

Copies of the Criminal Justice Advocacy & Support Directory are available in all Pennsylvania State Correctional Institution libraries.

For additional copies of this directory, please send a letter to:

Introduction

The purpose of this directory is to provide a listing of agencies in Pennsylvania, and to some extent nationwide, that serve the needs of prison inmates, victims of crimes and their families, criminal justice professionals, volunteers and support persons. This directory is also intended to promote networking among the sometimes isolated agencies doing great work within the criminal justice system.

The compilation, publication and distribution of this directory are the cumulative efforts throughout the past 18 years of professionals, volunteers, inmates and concerned citizens.

Special recognition goes to Mr. Angus Love, Esquire, of the Pennsylvania Institutional Law Project and Ms. Marie Hamilton, founder of CentrePeace, Inc., for their leadership, support and commitment to this directory. Both of these individuals have dedicated their lives to making a difference in the criminal justice system and the lives it affects.

Thanks are also extended to the Pennsylvania Department of Corrections for their cooperation in distributing the directory to correctional institutions throughout the Commonwealth.

Special thanks also go to CentrePeace's staff and volunteers for the hours of assistance they provided in making this directory possible. In particular, Ms. Tonya Young, CentrePeace's office manager, spent countless hours compiling, editing and coordinating this latest update. This publication has truly been a collaborative effort.

Every attempt has been made to provide accurate, up-to-date information. Inevitably, errors will be found. CentrePeace would appreciate being notified at the address listed below of any corrections, additions or deletions.

Additionally, the names and addresses of new organizations to be listed in the 2010-2012 CJASD would be greatly appreciated and may be sent to:

► Promotes a restorative justice system by modeling programs within our communities and correctional facilities that are based on healing brokenness rather than on vengeance—centering on peace rather than on fear. Programs include Project Restore where Centre County inmates learn valuable job skills and training, Creative Non-Violent Conflict Resolution and Breaking Barriers programs where people learn to appreciate others' points of view, assume responsibility for mistakes and identify and replace destructive patterns of behavior with positive ones, Prayer Mate Program which is a spiritual "pen-pal" program in which participants, using only their first names, communicate through a CentrePeace volunteer coordinator. Many inmates have credited the program with helping them develop a sense of re-connection to the community. Christmas Cards for Inmates program which distributes over 20,000 Christmas cards decorated by children throughout the prison facilities in Pennsylvania. Sometimes, this is the only piece of mail they receive, and it reminds all of the love and hope symbolized by the season. CentrePeace Angels, a new program started in 2006 to give Centre County inmate trainees' children a gift at Christmas from their parent, Conflict Resolution Workshops and Retreats are available to the general public as well as correctional staff and inmates. The 10-hour course teaches skills in conflict resolution, mediation and the power of non-violence. The Criminal Justice Advocacy and Support Directory which lists over 400 organizations that provide services for victims of crime, inmates and the families of all involved.

► Pennsylvania law provides rights for victims of crime regarding the release decision of state-sentenced offenders (any prison sentence over 23 months). In these cases, victims have the right to provide comment or testimony to be considered in the release decisions made by the PA Dept. of Corrections and the PA Board of Probation & Parole. This opportunity occurs only when eligible victims register with the Office of the Victim Advocate. Victims registered with OVA will receive a variety of notifications, including, but not limited to, the inmate's consideration for pre-release into a community corrections center, furloughs, parole consideration and escape.
